FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alpha Gamma Delta Installs Chapter at Texas State University

(INDIANAPOLIS) Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity is pleased to announce the installation of Kappa Epsilon Chapter at Texas State University, on April 28, 2017. Kappa Epsilon Chapter was installed as the 195th chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Collegians from Epsilon Psi–The University of Texas at Dallas and Kappa Gamma–Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi served as members of the initiating team. Lelia VanNorden Kelley, International Vice President-Collegians, served as the Installing Officer and Toastmistress of the Installation Banquet.

“It is our mission to impact our members and provide them with a broad framework for developing both personally and professionally throughout their lives,” Lelia said. “I am confident their membership in this Fraternity will be a life-changing experience—one full of lifelong friendships and unforgettable memories.”

The Installation Banquet was held at the Hill Country Events Center in San Marcos, Texas. Parents, sisters and friends of Alpha Gamma Delta joined together for this celebration of sisterhood. At the banquet, Lelia VanNorden Kelley presented the chapter with its official charter.
