Alpha Gamma Delta Member Enters Chapter Grand

(INDIANAPOLIS) Alpha Gamma Delta is deeply saddened to share that Ashly Erickson, Epsilon Kappa-Pittsburg State University, has entered Chapter Grand. Ashly was in her senior year at Pittsburg State University, majoring in management and marketing. She was to graduate at Saturday's commencement ceremony for the Kelce College of Business, and we mourn her sudden and tragic passing. A special moment of silence will be held in Ashly's honor during Saturday's ceremony.

"Ashly was blessed with such a bright future and will be missed by so many in our sisterhood," said Rie Gerah Hoehner, International President. "May the memories and recollections of her life offer peace and comfort as her friends, family and sisters mourn her passing. Alpha Gamma Delta's volunteers and staff members will continue to work with the university and chapter's leaders to ensure our sisters are supported during this most difficult time."

Alpha Gamma Delta extends our deepest sympathy to Ashly's family and friends, along with the sisters of Epsilon Kappa Chapter. Fraternity staff members and volunteers are working with the chapter to ensure they receive the support they need during this difficult time. Sympathy cards may be mailed to the chapter house at 2102 South Broadway, Pittsburg, KS 66762.
