Alpha Gamma Delta to Hold Academy for Chapter Advisors

(INDIANAPOLIS) Advisors of Alpha Gamma Delta gathered in Indianapolis for the first inaugural Academy for Chapter Advisors. The event was held at The Alexander in downtown Indianapolis, September 30-October 2.

Events kicked-off on Friday evening with dinner followed by a welcome from International President, Rie Gerah Hoehner. Later that evening, Dr. Lori Hart presented the keynote, "The Gift of a Chapter Advisor". A variety of educational sessions were offered on Saturday based on "Inspiring our leaders today to impact our sisters tomorrow". The sessions were designed to provide a deeper knowledge for Chapter Advisors that would allow them to grow in the role as well as enhance the collegiate experience. T.J. Sullivan served as the closing keynote speaker on Sunday, discussing, "Motivating the Middle".

"Alpha Gamma Delta was proud and delighted to host our inaugural Academy for Chapter Advisors," said Rie Gerah Hoehner, International President. "The success of our collegiate chapters starts with excellence within our collegiate advisory teams, with our Chapter Advisors leading the way! The Fraternity is focused on investing in our sisters at every level, and we were thrilled to provide an engaging, relevant, inspirational and developmental experience for our Chapter Advisors."
