

Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity Housing Corporation Names New Executive Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE [INDIANAPOLIS, June 28, 2019]—The Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity Housing Corporation is pleased to announce the hiring of Lisa Busch Spalding, Epsilon Delta–University of Texas at Austin, as the organization’s new Executive Director.

Lisa brings extensive experience in strategic operations, business analytics, organizational assessment and business development to the FHC. Her career has included positions with Angie’s List, where she served on the senior leadership team, and 17 years with the State of Indiana, working in the areas of tax policy and economic development.

Lisa holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Texas at Austin and a Master of Public Affairs from Indiana University, Bloomington. While at the University of Texas, she held several leadership positions within the Epsilon Delta Chapter and College Panhellenic.

“Lisa is a dynamic, self-aware, curiosity-driven leader with a high sense of urgency,” said FHC President Mary Beth Dulcey Morabito, Zeta Beta–Lehigh University. “Her significant experience working with small business, state agencies, universities and a high-growth public company—coupled with her connection to the Fraternity and the Indianapolis community—position her to uniquely serve the FHC well in this important moment in the life cycle of our business.”

Lisa will begin her role July 1, 2019.

Mary Beth also recognized Michele Camarco, the Fraternity’s Director of Finance & Operations, for her invaluable role in leading the FHC as Interim Executive Director since March 2018.
