Additionally, Communications & Marketing Director Wendy Theus Barker, Gamma Alpha–University of Georgia, was appointed to FCA's Board of Directors.

Winners were announced at an awards ceremony during the FCA Conference in Columbus, Ohio, on Friday, May 10, and members of our staff Communications and Marketing Team accepted the awards. Each year, more than 30 FCA member organizations are honored for their outstanding efforts in a variety of writing, design and communication categories. The best in fraternity/sorority communications, marketing and design is recognized during the FCA Awards Banquet. More than just a recognition opportunity, the Association's awards program is a valuable teaching tool for member organizations.
