Rae Oliver Davis Named Alpha Gamma Delta Distinguished Citizen

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[INDIANAPOLIS, August 9, 2022]— Rae Oliver Davis was one of four Alpha Gamma Delta members recognized as a Distinguished Citizen at the Fraternity's 51st International Convention in Louisville, Kentucky, on July 15. Almost 700 collegiate and alumnae members of Alpha Gamma Delta were in attendance.

Rae was selected as an Alpha Gamma Delta Distinguished Citizen in the field of public service. She received a bachelor's degree in political science from Murray State University where she was initiated into the Gamma Xi Chapter, and she received a Juris Doctorate from the University of Memphis, Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law. After serving in various roles throughout the Inspector General community, including Office of the General Counsel for the Office of the Inspector General for the U.S. Postal Service and Assistant Attorney General for the State of Tennessee, Rae was sworn in as Inspector General for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in 2019.

The Distinguished Citizen Award is presented each biennium to Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae who have made exceptional and outstanding contributions in their professions or in civic, organizational, cultural or charitable work. Alpha Gamma Delta was one of the first fraternity/sorority groups to honor alumnae in this way by establishing the Distinguished Citizen Award.

Rae was selected as a Distinguished Citizen in 2020, but due to the pandemic she was formally recognized at Convention 2022. To learn more about Rae's accomplishments and contributions to Alpha Gamma Delta, her award presentation video may be viewed here.
